What the student travel scheme saves you on a three-month Season Ticket to North Walsham

The train is a fast and easy way to travel and increases your choice of where to study your A-levels or vocational courses after GCSEs – and it's much cheaper than you think.

If you're 16-18 years old, in full-time education, you can get discounted rail season tickets for travel to school or college. These special student tickets are 10% cheaper than equivalent child fares, which means up to a whopping 50% discount on the adult fares you'd otherwise be paying!

And it gets better... as some colleges, schools and local councils offer you further help with train fares. Speak to them to find out more.

This discount applies to tickets between any two stations on the Greater Anglia network (outside the London Travelcard and Oyster areas) that are valid for one month or longer – and annual and term tickets are available!
